

Office of Governor Mitch Daniels

Weekly Wrap-up

A look at news and events in the Daniels Administration

Mitch Daniels

Indiana Medical Errors Report Released

(March 6, 2007) - Governor Mitch Daniels and state health officials released the first preliminary report of the Medical Error Reporting System (MERS), designed to provide reliable data on medical errors and improve patient safety. According to preliminary data, 77 medical errors were reported for 2006. Seventy-two events happened at hospitals and five events occurred at ambulatory surgery centers. Read the news release.

Governor's Update

Volume 1, Issue 24
Feb. 24 – March 6, 2007

Recent boards and commissions appointments

(March 5, 2007) - Governor Daniels announced several new boards and commissions appointments including the appointment of Norman Lowery to the Indiana State University Board of Trustees. Read the news release.

Daniels: Agriculture central to Indiana's future

(March 1, 2007) - Governor Daniels was the keynote speaker at the USDA's Agriculture Outlook Forum dinner in Arlington, Virginia. The governor said Indiana's focus on agriculture will continue to be central to the state's economic strategy and among new initiatives, the state has issued a challenge to encourage commercial development of cellulosic fuel production technologies. Read the news release.

Southeast Indiana given 'Jump Start' to fill new manufacturing jobs

(February 28, 2007) - Governor Mitch Daniels announced that Southeast Indiana will receive a $1.5 million infusion to train workers in the region's growing advanced manufacturing sector. Read the news release.

AT&T selects Indianapolis as new home for high-tech broadband call center

(February 27, 2007) - Governor Mitch Daniels and Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson joined executives from AT&T to announce the company's decision to locate a new broadband technical support call center here. Read the news release.

Governor visits Union City High School

(February 27, 2007) - The governor traveled to Union City High School for a question and answer session with the student body. Mara Mote (pictured with governor) of Union City met the governor last summer at the Broin Ethanol Plant groundbreaking and invited him to speak to a government class, but he met with the entire student body.

To view past updates, click here

Visit Governor Daniels' Web site:
www.in.gov/gov

